

Sacred Earth Fair Urban Edition

Saturday
April 20, 2024

1:00 - 4:00

Admission free

*Replenish our spirits
Build knowledge
Inspire action*

First Congregational Church of Bellingham, 2401 Cornwall Ave.

Opening ceremony at 1:00 - Tables, Sessions & Panel follow

| | | |
|----------------|---------------------------------------|--|
| Tables: | Backyard Pollinators | Salish Current |
| | Whatcom Million Trees | Community Energy Challenge |
| | Whatcom Transportation Authority | Multifaith Network for Climate Justice |
| | League of Women Voters / Zero Plastic | Whatcom Conservation District |
| | Whatcom Land Trust | Urban Composting |
| | And more! | |

| | | |
|------------------|-----------------------------|-----------------------------|
| Sessions: | Backyard Habitats - Audubon | Children's Mason Bee Houses |
| | Labyrinth / Poetry | COB Climate and Energy |

Panel Discussion: State Sen. Sharon Shewmake; Seth Vidaña, City of Bellingham Climate Energy Manager; Michael Feerer, Whatcom Million Trees; Mark Schofield, Community Energy Challenge; Jonna Gilham, student activist; facilitator Alex Harris, RE Sources

Calling together diverse environmental voices of our community that have shared common interests and concerns for creation care and environmental activism.

We encourage using WTA buses, biking, or walking. Parking will be available.

For further information contact Nancy Fayram,
First Congregational Green Team member -- nancyfayram@icloud.com